The View from the Top

By Michael Ehle — President

Hello my ski and tennis friends, what a summer it's been. The weather has been cooler, but the activities have been hot. We've had a great bike ride, a very successful luau and some smokin' hot tennis action! A big "thanks" go out to Ken and Brad Lawson for all the work they did on the luau! Wow tons of food and great friends, and great boat tours around Lake Honolulu! Ok some call it Hamilton Lake, but not us!

Thanks to Dave Billian, the tennis league is going strong again this year. I've seen some great tennis...the quick backhand of Dan Smith and charging the net for great saves by Troy Bowling! And don't forget those fast solid players Sunnie Heddon, Michelle Stewart and Diana Hagle! I swear Diana moves like an 18 year old, her size and speed will really surprise you. So if any of these women challenge you, LOOK OUT! And don't forget George, always thrilling the crowd even when he can't keep his clothes on...ask him about it! Thanks to all the players for participating and making it a success! Also, a salute to Stephanie Smith who received an injury that took her out of competition for the year. Sorry Steph, I know how much you enjoy the game.

And now let's keep a eye on the Mogul, because a lot is coming soon: our first party of the season is Sept. 6th at the Lantern; Sunnie's Patio Party will be on Sept. 21 and our 2nd Tour de Fort bike ride is on Sept. 22. Keep your eyes and ears open so you don't miss a thing.

At last, I'd like to say congrats to Becky Mangan & Sunnie Heddon on their retirements! May they cherish their time off to live like we all wish we could, I'm so envious.....
